

Motion: Three Schools One Cup

Spirit of the Motion: Screw McMaster, Screw UofT

Whereas: Those other schools think they are better than us.

And Whereas: We hate MAC and UofT

And Whereas: We love MAC and UofT

And Whereas: We need more competitive spirit with other schools

BIRT: The Engineering Society of Waterloo, McMaster Engineering Society, and Skule adopt a cup or trophy, which all three societies will compete for, here after know as the cup.

BIFRT: The Society that is currently in possession of the cup must inform the other two societies a minimum once per term that “the cup is up” and that both other societies must be informed within 15 minutes of each other.

BIFFRT: Upon the cup being “up” both Societies not in possession of the cup must race to the society in possession of the cup.

BIFFFRT: The first society to reach the society with the cup will claim possession of the cup.

BIFFFFRT: If upon 24 hours after the first society declares the cup is up, no other society has claimed the cup, then the cup that is currently in possession of the cup, retains possession of the cup until the next time they declare the cup is up.

BIFFFFFRT: Upon societies claiming passion of the cup, much celebration shall be had between all societies present, at a location of the society with original possession of the cup’s discretion, much debauchery shall be had.

BIFFFFFFRT: Either the President or the Vice President External of all the societies must be contacted to inform the other societies the cup is up.

BIFFFFFFRT: The cup shall be aptly titled The Triple D Cup.
